PREFACE

The continuation of the electoral process provides the foundation stone for the strengthening of democracy in the country. After the completion of the process of General and Senate Election(s), the Presidential Election took place on March 9, 2024. As per the Constitution of Pakistan, President serves as the head of state and is also symbol of the country's unity under the federal system of parliamentary democracy.

2. Without active support and dedicated commitment by the Honorable Chief Justices of the High Courts of Islamabad, Sindh, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Balochistan and Honorable Member ECP, Mr. Nisar Ahmed Durrani, who acted as Presiding Officers at the polling stations established at the Parliament House and four Provincial Assemblies, the Presidential Election may not have been conducted as smoothly as it did. I sincerely thank those honorable entities for their valuable support and contribution to this national cause. I also want to express my gratitude to the officers and employees of the Commission and other relevant stakeholders for the assistance rendered by them during the conduct of poll at the polling stations.

3. I firmly believe that we are bound to proceed more confidently down the democratic path if we instill tolerance and an attitude of tolerance as well as accommodation for fellow citizens. In this manner, we will undoubtedly be able to uphold the high moral standards and improve our repute in the international community. May Allah guide us to the right path and assist us in creating and fortifying democratic traditions and institutions for protecting our citizens' rights.

Sikandar Sultan Raja

Chief Election Commissioner of Pakistan

Islamabad, the 28th February, 2025

CHAPTER-1

INTRODUCTION

Under the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 14th Presidential Election in the country was held on March, 9, 2024. The year 2024 can be termed as one of the most momentous years in the political history of Pakistan for the reason that three very important elections were held viz General Elections to the National and Provincial Assemblies, Senate Elections and Presidential Election. It is an obvious proof of the fact that the people of Pakistan do believe in the continuity of democratic process in the country.

2. In 1956, the first Constitution was promulgated after independence, resultantly the position of the head of state was changed from Governor General to President of Pakistan. The Constitution of 1956 laid down the foundation of Presidential form of government and Maj. General Iskander Mirza was the only candidate for the slot of President who was elected unopposed and became the first President of Pakistan. The Constitution of 1962 envisaged direct election of the President through Basic Democracies and the 1973 Constitution again took the country to parliamentary democracy.

3. The Presidents and Acting Presidents of Pakistan, irrespective of their mode of election to this august office are given in chronicle order as follows:

4. The President is elected through votes of Members of the Senate, National Assembly and four Provincial Assemblies. The Provincial Assemblies (excluding Balochistan Assembly having 65 members) do not enjoy one-man one-vote facility and the votes are calculated under a formula mentioned in the Second Schedule of the Constitution in order to maintain parity among the four federating units.

The formula entails that "the number of votes cast in a Provincial Assembly in favour of each candidate shall be multiplied by the total number of seats in the Provincial Assembly for the time being having the smallest number of seats and divided by the total number of seats in the Provincial Assembly in which the votes have been cast."

In such a way the three Provincial Assemblies viz. Punjab, Sindh and Khyber Pakhtunkhwa despite having 371, 168 and 145 members have only 65 votes equal to the strength of the Balochistan Assembly. Total voters strength of the electoral college is as under:

1. National Assembly	336
2. Senate	100
3. Balochistan Assembly	65
4. Punjab Assembly (Members 371)	65 Calculated Votes
5. Sindh Assembly (Members 168)	65 Calculated Votes
6. KPK Assembly (Members 145)	65 Calculated Votes
Total	696

CHAPTER-2

LEGAL PROVISIONS

The term of the office of the President is five years from the day the President enters upon the Office. Article 41 of the Constitution stipulates timelines for conduct of election to office of President. The election cannot be held earlier than 60 days before the expiry of term as well as not later than 30 days before expiration of term of President provided that if the election cannot be held within the specified period if National Assembly is dissolved, it shall be held within 30 days of the General Elections to the Assemblies.

2. The term of incumbent President was going to expire on 8th September, 2023, as such election was to be held between 11th July, 2023 and 9th August, 2023. However, the election to the office of the President could not be held due to dissolution of Provincial Assemblies of Punjab and Khyber Pakhtunkhwa in January, 2023 before their expiry of terms and non-completion of electoral college i.e. Members of Senate, National Assembly and Members of all four Provincial Assemblies. Consequently, the incumbent President continued to hold the office of the President in terms of Article 44 of the Constitution. The General Elections-2024 were held on 8th February, 2024 and after the completion of electoral college, the Election Program for the conduct of Presidential Election was issued by the Commission.

CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS

3. In terms of clause (3) of Article 41, election to the office of the President is to be conducted in accordance with the provisions of Second Schedule of the Constitution (Annexure-I). This Schedule provides that the Chief Election Commissioner shall hold and conduct election to the office of the President and shall be the Returning Officer for such election. He has to appoint the Presiding Officers to conduct election in the Parliament and in the Provincial Assemblies. The Chief Election Commissioner is also required to notify the Election Program, receive nomination papers, hold scrutiny of such papers and publish list of validly nominated candidates after the period of withdrawal of nomination or retirement from the contest is over. The procedure or withdrawal of candidature, conduct of poll, counting of votes and declaration of result has also been given in the Second Schedule. Para 22 of the said Schedule provides that the Chief Election Commissioner may by public notification with the approval of the President make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Schedule.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION RULES, 1988

4. In pursuance of provisions of Second Schedule, the Presidential Election Rules were notified in the official gazette on December 3, 1988 (Annexure-II). These Rules contain detailed procedure for conduct of election to the office of the President. Various types of forms such as nomination paper (Form-I), list of candidates whose nominations have been accepted (Form-II), notice of withdrawal (Form-III), list of validly nominated candidates (Form-IV), result of count by Presiding Officers (Form-V), ballot papers account (Form-VI) and return of election to the office of the President (Form-VII), have been prescribed under these Rules. These Rules also lay down detailed procedure for filing of nomination papers, scrutiny of nomination papers, withdrawal of candidature, retirement from contest, procedure before commencement, conduct and close of the poll.

ELECTORAL COLLEGE

5. The electoral college for election to the office of the President consists of:

- (a) Members of the Senate and National Assembly; and
- (b) Members of all the four Provincial Assemblies.

According to the provisions of Second Schedule to the Constitution, the Members of the Senate, National Assembly and the Provincial Assembly having the smallest number of seats i.e. Provincial Assembly Balochistan, have one man one vote, whereas the votes cast by the Members of Provincial Assemblies of the Punjab, Sindh and Khyber Pakhtunkhwa are multiplied by the total number of seats in the Provincial Assembly of Balochistan and divided by the total number of seats in the Provincial Assembly in which votes have been cast so as to bring them at par with Balochistan Province. Thus, the votes of aforementioned three Provincial Assemblies are reduced to 65-equal to the number of seats in the Provincial Assembly of Balochistan.

QUALIFICATIONS

- (i) He is a Muslim;

On completion of counting process at polling stations, the result including ballot papers was sent to Chief Election Commissioner/Returning Officer. Summary of Result of Count prepared by Presiding Officer in respect of five polling stations is given below:

COUNTING BY RETURNING OFFICER

13. As required under Rule 28 of the Presidential Election Rules 1988, the Returning Officer recounts the ballot papers by opening the packets received by him in presence of such contesting candidates or their representatives as may be present. For this purpose, all contesting candidates were informed through notices that the count will be held on 10th March, 2024 at 11:30 a.m. at the ECP Secretariat, Islamabad. Each valid vote was recounted and each invalid vote was examined. During examination of ballot papers no ballot paper was found invalid which was declared valid by the Presiding Officers. Similarly, out of nine invalid ballot papers declared by the Presiding Officers no ballot paper was found valid as such the determination of result on the basis of Form-V prepared by the Presiding Officers took place.

DECLARATION OF RESULT

14. After completion of process, final result was prepared as per procedure laid down in Para 18 of Second Schedule and the formula given therein. As per formula the value of each valid vote cast in the Parliament and the Balochistan Assembly is one. Whereas the value of votes cast to each contesting candidate in respect of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Punjab and Sindh Assemblies is determined by multiplying total valid votes obtained by a contesting candidate in that assembly with 65 which is total strength of Balochistan Assembly being the smallest assembly. The number as result of multiplication is then divided with the total strength of that Assembly where the candidates secured the votes. The outcome was the total votes obtained by the candidate in that Assembly which were mentioned in final result prepared on Form-VII. It is also highlighted here that under the Rules the fraction is rounded off to the nearest whole. For example, if a candidate obtains 14.51 votes he is allocated 15 votes in the result sheet.

At the final stage two candidates were left in the run for the slot of the President of Pakistan. Total 1044 votes were recorded, out of which 9 votes were declared invalid leaving the total valid votes as 1035. Under the formula of calculating the votes Mr. Asif Ali Zardari, secured the highest number of votes i.e. 411 and was declared elected. Mr. Mehmood Khan Achakzai, was runner up with 181 votes. After preparation of result, the same was sent to Federal Government for declaration thereof by Notification in terms of Para 21 of Second Schedule of the Constitution. Mr. Asif Ali Zardari was sworn to the office of the President for the second time on the 10th of March 2024.
