d. That due to delimitation of both the constitution balance of population has been badly effected.

e. That according to the Section 9 of the Delimitation of Constituencies Act, 1974 it has been observed that

"(1) All constituencies for general seats shall, as far as practicable, be delimited having regard to the distribution of population in geographically compact areas, existing boundaries of administrative units, facilities of communication and public convenience and other cognate factors to ensure homogeneity in the creation of constituencies".

f. That according to the prevailing law of Delimitation of Constituencies Act, 1974 it will be appropriate that Patwar Circles 46-SB & 59-SB be excluded from constituency PP-79 Sargodha-VIII and be added in constituency PP-76 Sargodha-V and Patwar Circles 104 & Patwar Circle 109 be excluded from constituency PP-76 Sargodha-V and same be added in constituency PP-79 Sargodha-VIII.

g. That from the exclusion of addition of the above mentioned Patwar Circles, the balance of population in both the constituency PP-76 and PP-79 will be balanced.

- h. That it is further submitted that above mentioned Patwar Circles are on the boundary lines of the PP-76 & PP-79 and if the same are excluded and added as proposed by the applicant, the population will be balanced.
- i. That if the proposal made by the applicant is not accepted and patwar circles as proposed by the applicant for exclusion and addition are not acted, the applicant as well as residents of the said Patwar circles will be bound to suffer an irreparable loss and injury and it will cause serious discrimination.
- j. That right to be treated in accordance with law is an inalienable right of every citizen by virtue of Article 4 of the Constitution of Pakistan, therefore, a citizen cannot be deprive of such protection on the basis of supposed assumptions. It is a comprehensive due process of law clause. Even Article 10-A has been added in the Constitution of Pakistan for effective due process of law.

k. That Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan guaranteed the fundamental rights of the applicant, which cannot be infringed in any manner whatsoever.

l. That applicant has reserve his right to take further additional grounds at the time of final arguments.

It is therefore, most humbly and respectfully prayed that instant application may kindly be accepted and by considering the proposal made by the applicant, Patwar Circles as mentioned supra may kindly be excluded and added for the balance of population in the Constituencies PP-76 and PP-79 to meet the ends of justice.

Any other relief which be deems fit and proper may also be granted to the applicant.
